

Danforth Familycare Centre seeks a casual Dietician committed to providing high quality education and health services to people living with diabetes, as well as people who are at risk of developing diabetes. .

The Dietician works as a member of a multi-disciplinary team supported by physicians, and support staff

Duties include:

- Provide a thorough assessment of clients with prediabetes and diabetes, with an emphasis on the social determinants of health, the client's readiness for change, prior education, socio-economic and cultural background
- Facilitates group education classes, to meet the needs of the clients and their caregivers.
- Ensures continuity of care through timely and effective communication with the client's primary care giver and interdisciplinary team
- Conducts individual assessments and develops management plans consistent with Diabetes Canada Clinical Practice Guidelines
- Tailor educational tools/materials to meet the clients' needs to support the regional program
- Focus on South Asian diet

Qualifications:

- Registered Dietician
- Current certification with the Canadian Diabetes Educator Certification Board (CDE®) or actively working toward completion.

Leadership in implementation of clinical practice guidelines in diabetes management.

Proficiency in computer applications as needed in diabetes program.

Job Type: casual part time

Saturday preferred by patients.

Experience:

- Diabetes Education: 1 year (Preferred)

Education:

- Bachelor's Degree (Required)

Licence:

- Diabetes Educator (Preferred)

Salary: To be discussed

Eligible candidates please e-mail with your resume and salary expectation/hr at danforthfamilycare@gmail.com

